

PART A – MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS (20

Questions)

1. What is Linux?

Ans: B. Operating System Kernel

2. Ubuntu is:

Ans: C. Linux Distribution

3. What does WSL stand for?

Ans: C. Windows Subsystem for Linux

4. Linux is mainly used for:

Ans: B. Servers and Development

5. Which company developed WSL?

Ans: C. Microsoft

6. Which command displays the current working directory?

Ans: B. pwd

7. Which command lists files and folders?

Ans: C. ls

8. Which command displays the current logged-in user?

Ans: C. whoami

9. Which command shows the system hostname?

Ans: A. hostname

10. Which command displays the current date and time?

Ans: C. date

11. Which command displays Linux system information?

Ans: C. uname -a

12. Which command creates a new directory?

Ans: B. mkdir

13. What is the purpose of pwd?

Ans: B. Show Current Directory

14. What is the purpose of ls?

Ans: A. List Files and Directories

15. What is the purpose of whoami?

Ans: B. Show Current User

16. What is the purpose of hostname?

Ans: B. Show System Name

17. What is Ubuntu?

Ans: A. Linux Distribution

18. Ubuntu is installed on Windows through:

Ans: C. WSL

19. Which command would you use to verify Linux kernel information?

Ans: C. uname -a

20. Which command is used to create multiple directories?

Ans: C. mkdir